

FINISHING TOUCHES . . . The Rev. Louis C. Smith (left), pastor and the Rev. Charles E. Robinson, assistant pastor of Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd discuss last minute construction details in front of the church's new Sunday School building, which will be dedicated Sunday. Conducting the 10:30 a.m. dedication services with the two ministers will be the Rev. E. J. Cornils, executive vice president of the South Pacific District of the American Lutheran Church. The Rev. Cornils will preach at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services. The two-story structure, built at a cost of $80,000, was designed by Maul and Pulver. The 3,500 square feet of floor space will accommodate church offices and an infant and toddler nursery on the lower floor. Upper floor will contain eight classrooms. (Press-Herald Photo)

Gourmet Buffet Tonight

Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club will hold its annual Men's Night tonight at the Los Verdes Country Club.

Served from 7 to 8 p.m. will be a gourmet buffet plus prime rib, baker ham, or fish.

The speaker will be Bill Roberts, a former Broadway Shakespearean actor and Fifth Avenue dance instructor. Roberts' topic will be "From Make Believe to Reality."

The soloist will be Bob Mantzke, singer, entertainer, and choral director. Mantzke has soloed with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, and has appeared on television in London, West Germany, Copenhagen, and Sweden, as well as in the United States. Betty Jo MacPhee will be at the piano.

Tickets are $5.75 per person, and may be obtained from Mrs. Janice Spirk, 4519 Narrot St., or Mrs. Gladys Wood, 5405 Sara Drive.

'Pueblo' Wife Sets Discussion

Mrs. Lloyd M. Bucher, wife of the commander of the Navy intelligence ship Pueblo, will be guest speaker Wednesday at the 7:30 p.m. meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Christ, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Bucher and group member Mrs. Allan Hemphill have been friends since 1962, when their husbands were serving together as Naval officers. They will discuss the circumstances surrounding the capture of the Pueblo by the Koreans earlier this year. Mrs. Bucher's husband is still a prisoner in Korea.

The public is invited to attend this meeting, which will feature a "Harvest In-gathering" theme. An offering will be received to help bring a brighter Christmas to servicemen and foreign missionaries.

'Scientific' Prayer Is Talk Topic

A man who once thought there was no God says he came to know God through "scientific prayer."

When just a boy, says Harold Rogers, C. S., a Christian Science lecturer, who will speak tonight at 8 p.m., his unanswered prayers led him to believe that God did not exist.

Later, however, when he was in college, prayer as taught in Christian Science healed him of a serious injury from a car accident, he said. The injury had caused him to reach out to God again, he recalled.

Sponsored by First Church of Christ Scientist, the lecture will be given at the church.

LANGUAGE IS NO BARRIER . . . The Rev. Lloyd Newlin (right), pastor of the Torrance First Baptist Church, and the Rev. Domingo Avila (center), Baptist pastor from Cuba, look over a lesson plan for Sunday services with the help of interpreter Ismael Garcia. The Rev. Avila, who came to Torrance from Cuba in June, conducts Spanish language services each Sunday at 11 a.m. in the church fellowship hall. The Avilas fled the Castro regime when their church was closed by the government last year. The family is now learning English.

Baptist Church Offers Sunday Spanish Service

Baptist services in the Spanish language are currently being held each Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Torrance First Baptist Church fellowship hall.

Conducting the Spanish services is the Rev. Domingo Avila, a native of Matanzas, Cuba, who came to this country with his family in June under auspices of "Freedom Flight" and with the assistance of relatives already living here.

The Rev. Avila, who attended Los Pinos Nuevos Theological Seminary, served as pastor of five churches in various parts of Cuba. His last church, in Santiago de Cuba, was closed in 1967 by order of the Castro government.

The Avilas sought to leave Cuba because the com-unist regime suppressed worship and other freedoms. Also, they wanted their children to be educated in a non-communist atmosphere.

The three Avila children now attend Torrance schools and the Rev. and Mrs. Avila are both studying English at an adult class at Torrance High. Both Avilas work in Torrance industry.

Ismael Garcia, who leads the singing at the Spanish services, is acting as interpreter for the Avilas and

'Crisis' Seminar Under Way

A seminar in "aiding families in crisis," is being conducted for area clergy at the South Bay Mental Health Service, 13543 S. Hawthorne Blvd.

According to the Rev. Gary Smith, First Presbyterian Church, Inglewood, president of the South Bay Committee for Clergy and Mental Health which sponsors the seminar, the eight-week series will explore the dynamics of the family unit when confronted by normal and abnormal crises.

This program, the First Annual I. Jay Dunn Memorial seminar, is named in honor of the former chief of the South Bay Mental Health Service of the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health. Before his sudden death last February, Dr. Dunn pioneered local relations between religious and mental health professionals.

Catholic Women Plan Conference

The Los Angeles Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women will present "Moral Crisis and Christian Conscience" as the theme for the 21st Annual Conference to be held Monday at the Century Plaza Hotel in Century City.

Torrance residents who plan to attend the conference include Mmes. Lewis Gleason, Larry Plummer, Patrick Lydon, Lee Gallegos, Art Glassman, Roger Gallegos, Carl Metzler, Loren Mock, Vincent Tyrrell, Irvin Gleason, Roy Miller, James King, Raymond Pullora, J. Robertson and Donald Ritz. Mrs. Edmund Kirsnis, Palos Verdes Peninsula, is general chairman of the event.

The conference will be convened in the Santa

Monica Room at 9 a.m. with concelebration of the Mass by the Moderators of the Council Deaneries.

More than 2,000 women will be in attendance when Mrs. Joseph J. Dysart, president, opens the special sessions at 10 a.m. in the Los Angeles Ballroom. The effects of the so-called "new morality" on the individual, the family, and the nation will be the central concern of the conference.

"The Communications Media—Effects on the Family and Nation" will be discussed by panelists Bob Dornan, TV personality and newscaster from KJH-TV; William Donnelly, MFA, writer, Tidings TV critic; and Miss Jane Wyatt, motion picture actress and TV Emmy award winner.

Methodists Plan Fall Bazaar

Festive decorator creations such as wreaths and centerpieces made of pine cones are some of the many items to be found at the annual Harvest Sale Bazaar Nov. 2.

The bazaar is an annual event at the Walteria United Methodist Church sponsored by the Women's Society. Mrs. Charles Neigh, wife of the church's minister, makes a point of collecting objects of nature while on vacation trips and turns them into useful and decorative objects to sell at the bazaar.

Inferiority Is Theme Of Sermon

The Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science, 907 Knob Hill Ave., Redondo Beach, is welcoming Adela Rogers St. Johns as its guest speaker for the month of October.

Topic for Sunday morning services at 9:30 and 11 a.m. will be "Feeling of Inferiority."

Mrs. St. Johns is the author of the best-selling novel "Tell No Man," which involves a successful investment counselor who turns to the ministry after a moving spiritual experience.

In addition to her novels, Mrs. St. Johns has written for newspapers, magazine, and the movies during her 30-year career.

Christian Schools Set Teachers' Convention

More than 1,200 teachers, principals, pastors, and interested friends of the California Association of Christian Schools are expected to attend the organization's annual teachers' convention, slated for Oct. 17-18 in First Brethren Church, Long Beach, announces Rev. Steven Myers, administrator of the First Lutheran Elementary School of Torrance, a member-school of the Whittier-based organization.

Catholic Rummage Sale Set

The women of St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday, Oct. 18 and 19, at the parish school hall, 1950 Prospect Ave., Redondo Beach.

The giant rummage sale is scheduled between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., according to Mrs. Peter J. Kiefer, ways and means chairman. Mrs. Kiefer is assisted by Mrs. Frank Martin.

Proceeds will benefit St. Lawrence Martyr School.

Youth Radio Show May Begin Soon

A "new sound" for youth on radio will hit the airwaves in the near future as a result of a special offering being taken at Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., Saturday at 11 a.m.

The "New sound," explains Pastor David Pillor of the local congregation, will be a national youth radio program which will present moral guideposts for the "now" generation.
